Our purpose is to accelerate your personal, professional, and business growth and provide access to collective intelligence to make better decisions.

We gather in peer groups based on trust and commitment. We support each other on crucial decisions to achieve our goals and build an extraordinary life, and our platform generates experiences, learning, and exchange. Together we are wiser.

OVERVIEW

The Renaissance Executive Forums Chief Information / Technology Officer Forum is designed to be a peer advisory group for technology executives. The forum is uniquely tailored, focused, and facilitated to meet their needs and help them be better leaders, delivering improved organizational results.

This peer group is unlike any other peer group due to the power of expert facilitation. This group pulls shared insights from all group members.

Why would companies want to send their CIO/CTO to this forum group?

- Best Practices
- Exposure to creative ideas/solutions
- Develop enhanced emotional intelligence
- Collaborate with business thought leaders
- Improved strategic alignment to support the business
- Establish clarity on technology budgeting, ROI
